1. Former Communist labor leader Juan P. Luna has been seeking the support of APRA labor leaders in his attempts to establish himself as Peru's top labor figure. According to source, during the month of August Luna received permission from the Ministry of Government to visit Aprista labor elements who are being held as political prisoners in various Lima jails.
2. Luna was allowed to review police files on jailed Apristas and from these files selected a list of individuals whom he thought might be persuaded to defect from the ranks of APRA and join his labor movement in exchange for their freedom.
3. Luna visited the following Apristas in jail:

Miguel Estrada Maldonado	Felix Levano Carbajal
Juan Chang Levano	Angel Vigo Urbina
Jose Fonken Piedra	Augusto Prada Trolles
Rafael Gonzalez Lamper	Guillermo Mercado Leon
Victor Roel	Lorenzo Romero Paredes
Lazaro Zanabria Hermoza	Amador Diaz Paredes
Elias Chunga Zapata	Isidro Poma Ordenez
Pedro Vargas Chunga	Daniel Benduzu Gutierrez
Jose Leon Morales	Juan Campos Lama
Jose Casapia Toro Lira
4. Source does not know how many of these individuals may have agreed to Luna's terms but believes that the majority turned him down.
